

CITIZENS FAVOR GREAT WHITE WAY

Strong Sentiment in Favor of the Proposed Post Lighting System in Business Section.

WOULD IMPROVE APPEARANCE

Dark and Gloomy Streets Would be Brilliantly Illuminated—Committee Secures Data.

There is a strong sentiment throughout the city in favor of the proposed post lighting system for the business district. The system has been designated as "The Great White Way" and the citizens feel that such an improvement would add vastly to the appearance of the city. The business district at the present time is poorly lighted, yet it is the traffic center. The old arc lights flicker an unsteady light and it is admitted that the cost of maintenance is too great for the service they render.

The committee of which Claude Carter is chairman recently appointed by the chamber of commerce, is securing data and information relative to the installation of the new system and expects to be ready to report in the near future. A statement will be made at the next meeting of the council Wednesday night. The popularity of the proposed system is indicated by the opinions expressed by the following residents:

Dr. M. F. Gerrish—"The idea is simply great. The effect is wonderful. When the lights are installed no one would ever consent to have them removed. The lights lend much to the appearance of the city. I certainly hope that the folks back of this plan will not let it fail."

H. C. Dannettell, real estate—"The installation of the post lighting system is a great move. But I think all the telephone and light poles ought to be removed from the streets. The lights will make a dandy street and will be a real benefit to the city."

O. B. Abel, attorney—"The great white way would be a great thing for the city. There is no question that the appearance would be enhanced."

The Rev. L. T. Freeland—"One cannot appreciate the post lighting system until it is in use. It will add more to the appearance of the city than we might dream. The effect is wonderful."

G. A. Berdon, automobile salesman—"Everybody is for a better lighting system. Seymour formerly was known as the 'tunnel.' We ought to improve the lighting of our streets and overcome the reputation for dark thoroughfares."

H. S. Prophet, merchant—"I am so strongly in favor of the post lighting system that if the city don't install one we are going to put post lights around our store. I didn't ask the cost but that don't make much difference."

Adolph Steinwedel, merchant—"The post lights would be a great thing for the city. I am in favor of the system."

Nathan Kaufman, merchant—"The post lighting system would be a far much better advertisement for the city than any bill board advertising we might do."

J. H. Andrews, banker—"The post lighting system is absolutely necessary. I believe the city should put it in as it is for the benefit of the city as a whole."

L. C. Griffiths, Telephone Owner—"Of all the things Seymour needs, we need the post lighting system 'first and worst.'"

E. F. Maxon, pharmacist—"I am strongly in favor of the system. My idea is that the city should pay about eighty per cent. of the cost, the property owners ten per cent. and the merchants ten per cent."

C. E. McConaughy, motion picture manager—"The post lights would be a fine thing for the city. Nothing improves the appearance of a city as much as well lighted streets."

Dr. Harold Graessle, physician—"The city has a splendid system of street light for the residential sections, but we certainly need some improvement in the business district system. The post lighting system would improve the situation wonderfully. Many cities have such a system and we ought to have it here."

RAILWAY FREIGHT EMBARGO IS REGARDED AS LIKELY

Congestion at Ports Becomes Serious Due to Strike Among Seamen.

By United Press
New York, July 15.—Possibility of an embargo on railway freight from interior points because the situation created by the seaman's strike, was foreseen in shipping circles today.

Spread of the strike to the Great Lakes as well as along the Atlantic coast was also considered possible, because of the refusal of the United States shipping board and private steamship owners to grant the terms demanded.

AUDITOR ASKED TO FORWARD TAX LIST

State Board of Tax Commissioners Wants Lists of Appraisements of Local Corporations.

TO CHECK UP ALL FIGURES

Individuals Given Opportunity to Appear Before Board and Object to Any Valuation.

Albert Laedtker, county auditor, has received instructions from the state board of tax commissioners to forward a compilation of the valuations of all corporations made by the Jackson county board of review. Duplicates of the returns filed with the board by the corporations are in possession of the state board. The corporations in Jackson county were assessed much higher than formerly and the board of equalization endeavored to fix the appraisements on a fair and equitable basis. For this reason it is not believed that any changes will be made.

It is explained in the letter to the county auditor that the state board desires the valuations made by the local board in order that they may be checked up with the returns made by the corporations. In this way the state board will determine the individual corporations that it desires to

JUDGE REFUSES TO TAKE ACTION

Crothersville Injunction Suit Returned to Jackson County by Judge Donaker.

SET FOR HEARING TODAY

Large Number of Interested Property Owners Go to Columbus to Attend Hearing.

The Crothersville injunction suit case filed by citizens at that place against the town board which was set for hearing before Judge Donaker in the Bartholomew circuit court today was returned to this county. The Bartholomew county judge gave the opinion that his court would have no jurisdiction in the case and that it was up to the judge of the Jackson circuit court to decide the case.

The injunction suit, it will be remembered, resulted from the recent action of the Crothersville town board to improve the town with a sewer system and pave some of the important streets there. The contracts for the improvements were awarded and some of the work was started when the suit to enjoin the contractors and members of the town board was filed.

James A. Cox, judge of the Jackson circuit court, is a resident of the town of Crothersville and is an interested property owner. For that reason he handed down the decision that he was not eligible to decide the case and suggested that it be taken to the Bartholomew circuit court which was done.

The decision handed down by the

BIG RECEPTION GIVEN PERSHING

American Commander and Staff Arrives at London—Greeted by High British Army Officials.

AMERICAN COLONY PRESENT

Guard of Honor Composed of Welsh Soldiers Welcomes Pershing at the Victoria Station.

By United Press
London, July 15.—General Pershing and his staff arrived here from Dover at 12:38 p. m. today.

Dense crowds blocked the Victoria station when the special train carrying General Pershing arrived. A guard of honor composed of Welsh guards, General Fielding, War Minister Lord Churchill, representatives of Field Marshal Haig and the chief of the general staff, formed part of the British welcoming contingent.

Practically all of the American colony in London joined in the greeting. As Pershing's train rolled in at the royal platform silken colors were dipped and the band played the "Star Spangled Banner."

After Churchill had shaken hands with the American commander numerous presentations followed and Pershing inspected the guard of honor. Pershing and his staff were then conveyed to the Carlton hotel where the American officers will make their headquarters.

WITHDRAWAL FROM LEAGUE PROPOSED

Senators Who are Opposed to Wilsonian Plan Declare it Will Be Issue In Campaign.

TWO YEARS FOR WITHDRAWAL

Anti-Leaguers Say that by 1923 U. S. Will Have Done Part Towards Stabilizing Europe.

By United Press

Washington, July 15.—The senate fight over the league of nations and the peace treaty increased in bitterness today and was hotly waged. Senator Norris attacked the Shantung settlement feature of the treaty. Senator Underwood came out flatly in support of the league.

A direct clash between President Wilson and the senate is approaching rapidly in the opinion of many senators. They expected this crash to come over the question of giving the senate a record of secret deliberations of the peace conference.

Developments included: Passage by the foreign relations committee of the Johnson resolution requesting transmission of all confidential data regarding the league of nations debate and negotiations at Paris.

Disclosures to the senate by Senator Norris of correspondence between Japan and the allies, pledging to aid in the dismemberment of China.

Virtual announcement that President Wilson is unwilling to submit to an examination by the foreign relations committee at the capital and that if the committee wishes to question him it must go to the white house.

Though the Johnson resolution passed unanimously, democratic senators said they expect President Wilson to decline to give the committee the mass of stenographic reports of debates, copies of league of nations drafts, reports and arguments which it calls for. Impossibility of complying with the request, senators predicted, will be the President's ground for refusal.

Seeing complete victory for President Wilson in the senate, some league of nations opponents were today making plans for withdrawal from the league by the United States an issue in the 1920 campaign.

No one was openly sponsoring the proposal. Those who favored it will be ready to announce it, however, the moment they think it will receive party support.

Senators who have talked this idea over point out that two years are required for actual withdrawal and the issue in the election would be the giving of notice to the league of this country's intention to withdraw which would get us out in 1923. By that time, these senators say, the United States will have done her share towards stabilizing Europe and will have a right to resume its individual nationalistic policy.

Developments expected today in connection with the senate's discussion of the league and the treaty were:

Meeting of the foreign relations committee at 10 o'clock at which Senator Johnson, California planned to urge adoption of his resolution calling on the president to give the committee testimony and data from the peace conference and drafts of all league of nations plans offered.

Discussion of the senate of the Lodge resolution requesting that the

COLORED YOUTH IS LOCATED IN CHICAGO

Wanted in This City to Face Grand Larceny Charge—Said to Have Stolen Salesman's Samples.

J. T. Abell, chief of police, has succeeded in locating Reginald Blackstone, colored, who is wanted in this city to face a grand larceny charge which was filed against him by Mr. Johnson, traveling representative of the Hibbard, Spencer & Bartlett Hardware Company, of Chicago, Ill. Chief Abell has learned the boy's address in Chicago and has wired the police there to arrest and hold the colored boy until he can be returned to this city.

Blackstone is alleged to have stolen cutlery and other valuable merchandise carried by the traveling salesman which was stored in the sample room at the New Lynn hotel. The goods stolen represent several hundred dollars.

The colored youth resided in this city for several months during which time he worked as a boot black at different shining parlors and barber shops. Providing the Chicago officers succeed in arresting the lad he will be returned to this city to face the charges against him.

The charges were filed against him several days ago shortly after his departure from this city but the police kept the matter quiet as it was believed that he was in one of the nearby cities and they would succeed in arresting him before he was too far away.

"TODAY, I'M WELL"

Says Jackson Lady, And Thanks Cardui For Her Good Health.

Jackson, Ohio.—Mrs. Alice Scurlock, of this place, writes: "About three or four years I was in a very weak state. I suffered with my sides. They were sore and it seemed when I would lay down at nights something seemed like it twisted and pulled in my sides.

I could not rest nights, I was so very nervous. At... time I was worse than others, the pain was much more severe. I had sick headaches. My limbs would get numb and this was disagreeable...

I doctored myself and tried different doctors... I was very frightened of operations and felt I could not go through one, I had gotten down so nervous. I read of Cardui and decided to use it. I took 11 or 12 bottles. Today I'm well and do not have any nervous trouble. I am able to do my own work and feel so strong and well. My sides are all right, and I know Cardui did it. I certainly am stronger than in a long time."

If you suffer from any of the troubles so common to women, try Cardui. Thousands of women give Card-u-i credit for their good health. NCB-10

INDIANIAN KILLED BY MINE EXPLOSION

Floyd Harmon Goes to Death When Trawler is Wrecked by Floating Mine.

By United Press

Washington, July 15—One officer and six men of the U. S. trawler Richard Buckley, were killed when the ship was sunk by a mine they were trying to sweep up in the North Sea off the coast of England, Saturday, Admiral Knapp at London reported to the navy department today. The dead include engineer, Floyd Harmon, of Roann, Ind.

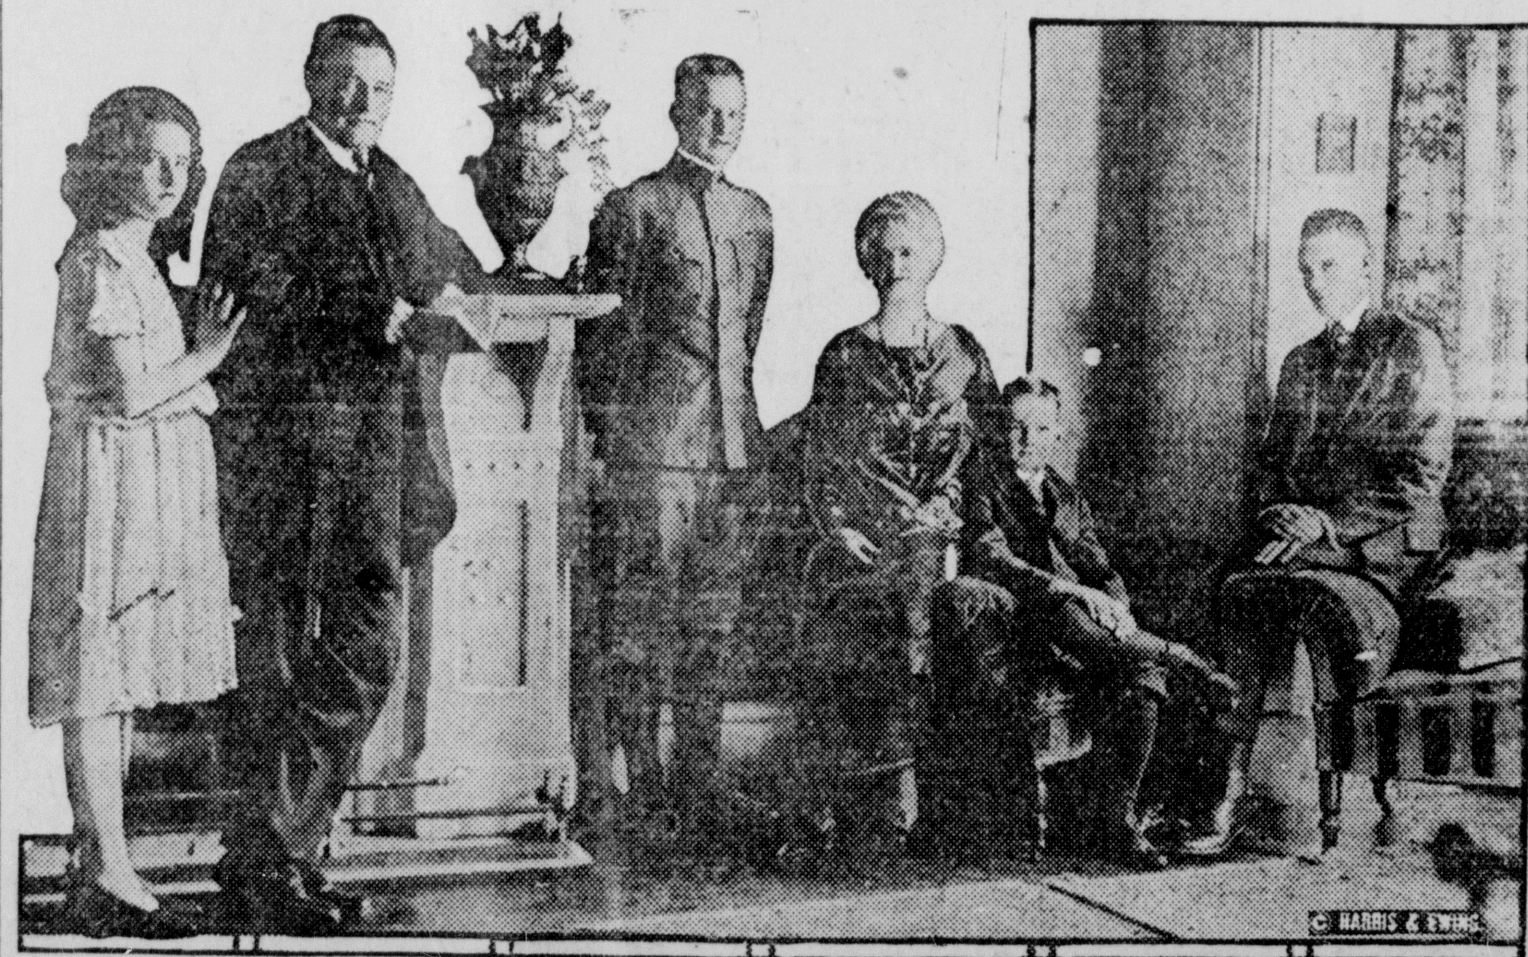

Two officers were slightly injured, but were saved with the sixteen other men comprising the crew. The trawler was sweeping up its mine net when a mine was discovered entangled in it. The crew started to let out the net again, but the mine exploded a few feet clear of the stern.

The trawler sank in seven minutes. Commander King and six men who died with him were believed to have been carried down with the ship. King, the report stated, remained on the bridge to see that all the crew were saved and went down with his ship.

Mrs. J. W. Hustedt and children, Carl and Flora, returned this morning from Vincennes where they have been visiting relatives.

ROTARIANS HEAR AND SEE BOY SCOUT DEMONSTRATION

Interesting and Instructive Program on Work Being Done by Scout Troops.

This was Boy Scout day at the Rotary Club. At the luncheon which was served at noon Rev. J. H. More, who is scoutmaster of troop No. 1, took charge of the program and spoke of the history and growth of the Boy Scout organization. The Boy Scout organization is ten years old. It originated in England with Sir Baden-Powell for the purpose of developing a higher grade of manhood among the boys and young men of England. The organization spread rapidly through England and this country until today there are 450,000 Boy Scouts and 16,000 Scoutmasters.

This number could be doubled if men who are willing and capable could be secured for Scoutmasters. The remarkable growth has been due to the cultivation of the gang spirit among boys along lines of clean, righteous and religious life.

Addresses were made also by Scoutmaster W. E. Carroll, of troop 4, and Scoutmaster Charles Hemmer, of troop 3. Ten boys of troop No. 1 were guests of the Rotary Club and gave a demonstration of bandaging and of emergency help for accident.

The program also included the musical numbers which were led by Senator Ed. P. Elsner and afforded the usual amount of life and fun for the club.

The meeting next week will be a good roads meeting and the county commissioners will be invited to attend as guests of the club.

have certified for review and reassessment at the third session of the state board, which starts Monday, July 21.

Under the new tax law it is provided that appeals from the valuations made by the board of review will be considered by the state board at the third session. Any taxpayer, assessed locally, has the right to appeal to the state board during this session to review the assessment of his property or the property of any other taxpayer. Through the work of the special representatives of the state board, who are now at work in the state, the state board will list the property, other than corporations, that it will desire certified for review.

The first week of the third session will be devoted to the hearing of appeals and the review of certified cases. The last week, from Aug. 11 to Aug. 16, will be devoted to consideration of the assessments of the various taxing units in order to equalize assessments, both within and between counties.

The board will conclude its second session Saturday. This session started July 8. Applications for review and reassessments of approximately 300 corporations over which the state board has original assessing jurisdiction are being considered.

George Morris, who was sentenced in 1915 for a term of from ten to twenty years in the state prison for burglary at Reddington, will have his sentence reduced to a term of from two to fourteen years if the Governor approves the commendation made by the state board of pardons. David O. Harris who was convicted in Lawrence county in 1900 for the murder of George Brown in this city, is recommended for parole.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

It is characteristic of folks after they pass the allotted "three score years and ten," to look back over the days that are gone and thoughtfully live them over. I find myself, at seventy-one, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store I owned at Bolivar, Mo., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and customers—what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Stomach, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxatives and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user; which was due to the fact that they were not thorough enough in their action, some simply acting on the upper or small intestines, while others would act only on the lower or large intestines, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

I believed that a preparation to produce the best effect must first tone the liver, then act on the stomach and entire alimentary system. If this was accomplished, the medicine would produce a mild, but thorough elimination of the waste without the usual sickening sensations, and make the user feel better.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, I at last perfected the formula that is now known as Nature's Remedy, which I truly believe goes further and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the user of Nature's Remedy as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase the dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Nature's Remedy from the very first.

And now as I find myself nearing the age when I must bow to the inevitable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit each day and read the letters that each mail brings from people as old or older than I, who tell of having used Nature's Remedy for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it. It is a comforting thought, my friends, for a man at my age to feel that aside from his own success, one has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction, my greatest happiness today, is the knowledge that tonight more than one million people will take a Nature's Remedy (NR Tablet) and will be better, healthier, happier people for it. I hope you will be one of them.

"I should like to meet your pock-marked friend," said King Alcinoos, "and I have a notion that, with you as a bait, I shall not long be denied the pleasure."

"I am inclined to think that I have seen him already," said Calypso, using her honey-golden voice for the base purpose of mentioning him.

"Impossible!" I cried; "he is long since safe in Nassau jail."

"Oh, not lately," she answered to our interrogative surprise, and giving a swift embarrassed look at her father, which I at once connected with the secret of the doubloons.

"Seriously, Calypso?" asked her father, with a certain stern affection, as thinking of her safety. "On one of your errands to town?"

And then, turning to me, he said:

"Sir Ulysses, you have spoken well, and your speech has been that free, open-hearted speech that wins its way alike among the Hyperboreans that dwell in frozen twilight near the northern star, and those dwarfed and swarthy intelligences that blacken in the fierce sunlight of that fearful axle we call the equator. Therefore, I will make return to you of speech no less frank and true . . ."

He took a puff at his cigar, and then continued:

"I should not risk this confession, but that it is easy to see that you belong to the race of Eternal Children, to which, you may have realized, my daughter and I also belong. This adventure of yours after buried treasure has not seriously been for the doubloons and pieces of eight, the million dollars, and the million and a half dollars themselves, but for the fun of going after them, sailing the unknown seas, coral islands, and all that sort of blessed moonshine. Well, Calypso, and I are just like that, and I am going to tell you something exciting—we too have our buried treasure. It is nothing like so magnificent in amount as yours, or your Henry P. Tobias'—and where it is at this particular moment I know as little as yourself. In fact it is Calypso's secret . . ."

I looked across at Calypso, but her eyes were far beyond capture, in unplumeted seas.

"I will show you presently where I found it, among the rocks near by—now a haunt of wild bees."

"Can you ever forget that passage in the Georgics? It makes the honey taste sweeter to me every time I taste it. We must have some of it for dinner, by the way, Calypso."

I could not help laughing, and so, for a moment, breaking up the story. The dear fellow! Was there any business of human importance from which he could not be diverted by a quotation from Homer or Virgil or Shakespeare? But he was soon in the saddle again.

"Well," he resumed, "one day, some seven years ago, in a little cave below the orange trees, grubbing about as I am fond of doing, I came upon a beautiful old box of beaten copper, sunk deep among the roots of a fig tree. It was strong, but it seemed too dainty for a pirate—some great lady's jewel box more likely—Calypso shall show it to us presently. On opening it—what do you think? It spilled over with golden doubloons—among which were submerged some fine jewels, such as this tie ring you see me wearing. Actually, it was no great treasure, at a monetary calculation—certainly no fortune—but from our romantic point of view, as belonging to the race of Eternal Children, it was El Dorado, Aladdin's lamp, the mines of Peru, the whole sunken Spanish Main, glimmering fifty fathoms deep in mother-of-pearl and the moon. It was the very Secret Rose of Romance; and, also, mark you, it was some money—oh, perhaps, all told, it might be some five thousand guineas, or—what would you say?—twenty-five odd thousand dollars; Calypso knows better than I, and she, as I said, alone knows where it is now hid, and how much of it now remains."

He paused to relight his cigar, while Calypso and I—Well, he began again: "Now my daughter and I," and he paused to look at her fondly, "though of the race of Eternal Children, are not without some of the innocent wisdom which Holy Writ countenances as the self-protection of the innocent—Calypso, I may say, is particularly endowed with this quality, needing it as she does especially for the guardianship for her foolish talkative old father, who, by the way, is almost at the end of his tale. So, when this old chest flashed its bewildering dazzle upon us, we, being poor folk, were not more dazzled than afraid. For—like the poor man in the fable—such good fortune was all too likely to be our undoing, should it come to the ears of the great, or the indigent criminal. The 'great' in our thought was, I am ashamed to say, the sacred British treasury, by an ancient law of which, forty per cent of all 'treasure-trove' belongs to his majesty the king. The 'indigent criminal' was represented by—well, our colored (and not so very much colored) neighbors. Of course we ought to have sent the whole treasure to your friend, John Saunders of his Britannic majesty's government at Nassau, but—Well, he didn't. Some day, perhaps, you will put in a word for us with him, as you drink his old port, in the snuggery. Meanwhile, we had an idea, Calypso and I—"

He paused—for Calypso had involuntarily made a gesture, as though pleading to be spared the whole revelation—and then with a smile, continued:

"We determined to hide away our little hoard where it would be safe from our neighbors, and dispose of it according to our needs with a certain tradesman in the town whom we thought we could trust—a tradesman, who, by the way, quite naturally levies a little tax upon us for his security. No blame to him! I have lived far too long to be hard on human nature."

"John Sweeney?" I asked, looking over at Calypso with eyes that dared at last to smile.

"The very same, my Lord Ulysses," answered my friend.

And so I came to understand that Mr. Sweeney's reluctance in selling me that doubloon was not so sinister as it had, at the moment, appeared; that it had in fact come of a loyalty which was already for me the most precious of loyalties.

"I," said I, "as a fitting conclusion to the confidence you have reposed in me, my Lord Alcinoos, if Miss Calypso would have the kindness to let us have a sight of that chest of beaten copper of which you spoke, I would like to restore this, that was once a part of its contents, wherever the rest of them (and I confess that I paused a moment) "may be in hiding."

And I took from my pocket the sacred doubloon that I had bought from John Sweeney—may Heaven have mercy upon his soul!—for sixteen dollars and seventy-five cents, on that immortal evening.

THANKS EXPRESSED BY LOCAL WOMAN

Mrs. Woodward Shows Deep Gratitude for Trutona Following Quick Relief.

"I Feel I Should Recommend This Tonic to Anyone," Seymour Resident Avers.

"Trutona has relieved me of a great deal of suffering and unpleasantness and I feel that I should recommend it to anyone who is suffering as I did," Mrs. Anna Woodward, a well known Seymour woman residing at 206 Jeff Avenue, said recently.

"Mine was a complication of troubles," Mrs. Woodward continued. "My liver and kidneys were out of shape and I had indigestion and was bothered with nervousness. For the past three months I have had severe pains in my back and sides, especially in my right side. I would become short of breath at times and frequently had severe pains around my heart. I was nervous and couldn't rest well at night. I usually felt so tired and draggy that I could scarcely do my housework."

"The pains in my back and sides have been greatly relieved by Trutona and the pains around my heart have disappeared now. My appetite has improved wonderfully and I can again enjoy my meals. I'm not nervous any more, either, and can rest well at night. And I'm not all tired out after doing my housework these days. I must say that I certainly feel stronger and better now, and I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

Statements of local people are the evidence that convinces even the most skeptical of a medicine's merit. Seymour men and women are rapidly becoming convinced of Trutona's unusual worth and already a number have voiced public praise for the perfect tonic. They have lauded Trutona as a splendid combatant of stomach, bowel and liver troubles, catarrhal affections, nervousness, loss of appetite and the like.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L. Federmann's Drug Store. j5&18

A Budding Humorist.

"Mamma, when I went to see Tom Shanley this morning, the girl that came to the door said he wasn't in, and I knew he was. What did she want to tell me that for?"

"There may have been reasons why Tommy could not be seen, dear. She told you out of politeness."

"Yes, she acted as if she was out of politeness."

Prosaic Matter.

"What did that poet have to offer?"

"Something in the newer vein, he said, inspired by hearing the rattling of milk cans early one winter morning."

"You didn't accept that sort of rot, I hope?"

"No. I told him as kindly as I could that the milkmaid has her place in poetry, but a milk can is a milk can and nothing more."

A SURE CURE.

Miss C.: Captain, what do you recommend for light-headedness?

Captain: Keep it dark.

Winged Wonders.

The airplane's expanse we view
With hearts devoid of glee.
If it could lay an egg or two,
Oh, what a bird 't would be!

Her Fear.

"What seems to be the matter with your husband?"

"The doctor doesn't know. He's coming again tomorrow."

"Dear me. I hope he isn't down with that terrible bolshevik disease the papers say is spreading all over the country."

What Betty Likes Best.

The dear things were sitting on the stone steps of the Polytechnic. Said one of them: "I see Betty has decorated her room with pistols, swords and rifles."

"Yes, Betty's a great girl for having arms around her," replied her chum.—London Tit-Bits.

Seemed Suspicious.

"I fear your father does not favor our marriage."

"Why do you say that?"

"I have saved some money for the happy event."

"Well?"

"And he wants me to put it into a scheme."

How's This?

We offer $100.00 for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Sold by druggists for over forty years. Price 75c. Testimonials free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

ONE WAY TO BEAT HIM.

Edwin and Morris are little playmates who have just passed their sixth birthday and are getting ready to start to school.

Edwin was discussing the school proposition with a neighbor recently.

"You will have to hurry or Morris will get ahead of you," said the neighbor.

"Oh, no, he won't," replied Edwin. "I'm going to sit on the seat in front of him."

Serviceable Scenery.

"There are some things possible in the movies that can't be done on the stage."

"For instance?"

"If the scenes of a play are laid in a certain quarter of the world they can be filmed on the spot."

"Sure. But as a matter of fact, California landscapes have been used for every kind of scenery from tropical islands to the steppes of Siberia."

A NEW REMEDY.

"Oh, dear, we have had such trouble with our son Archibald," exclaimed Mrs. Hi-appe at the bridge party.

"We had to take him out of college because he overstudied."

"And where is he now, Mrs. Hi-appe?" asked Mrs. Heepsadough, sweetly.

"We've started him on the stage, so he could get his health back by understudying."

A Finished Product.

"Don't count your chickens before they are hatched."

"No, suh," replied Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "De fack is, I don't pay no 'tention to 'em till dey's done growed several months."

Safety First.

"Are you looking for a permanent investment?"

"Not too permanent."

"Huh?"

"I don't want to put my money in unless there's a chance to get it out."

Various Schools.

"My son-in-law is a doctor."

"What school?"

"School?"

"Yes, is he one of the cheer-up sort, or one of the kind that shakes his head and looks solemn?"

Natural Transition.

"The aviator we were speaking of has rather a hasty temper. In his last trip he flew into a nasty storm, and then—"

"Well, and then?"

"He flew into a rage."

He Protests Too Much.

Hubby—No man with any sense would allow you to carry on the way you do.

Wifey—How do you know what a man with any sense would do?—London Punch.

IT DOES.

Money makes the mare go.
Yep, and nowadays with the cost of gasoline where it is it takes money to make the little old four cylinder go, too.

Fruit Failure.

"In the bright lexicon of youth
There's no such word as 'fail'—
Mistake! The tiniest buds in sooth
Have perished in the gale."

Not That Kind.

Client—I want to sue for a divorce and an allowance of $1,500 a year.

Lawyer—What is your husband's income?

Client—It's about that. I wouldn't ask for more than a man makes. I'm not that kind.

From Necessity.

Mrs. Justwed—Would you stoop to search your husband's pockets while he's asleep?

Mrs. Longwed—I have to stoop to do it. He drops his clothes all over the floor.

A. H. Ahlbrand spent today in Indianapolis.

HOW WOUNDED ANIMALS CURE THEMSELVES WHEN INJURED OR SICK.

Few people realize how many animals are constantly getting hurt and sick. The wild animals seldom get sick from what they eat, but the domestic animals frequently do. Wild animals get injured from fighting with other animal enemies. In all cases, animals have a way of doctoring themselves that is remarkable.

Animals suffering from fever eat nothing, keep quiet, seek darkness and airy places, drink much water and sometimes plunge into the water from time to time. When a dog has lost its appetite it eats that species of grass known as "dog's grass." Cats also eat grass, catnip, etc., when sick. Sheep and cows in the same circumstances seek out certain wild plants.

If an ant's foot is cut, other ants will cover the wounded part with a transparent fluid from their mouths. If a chimpanzee is wounded it stops the flow of blood by placing its hand on the wound or dressing it with leaves and grass.

A terrier had an injured eye. It remained lying under a counter, avoiding heat and light, although it had been its habit to keep close to the fire. It adopted the general treatment—rest and abstinence from food. The local treatment consisted in licking the upper surface of its paw, which it then applied to the wounded eye, again licking the paw when it became dry. Cats, when hurt, also treat themselves by this simple method.

The methods adopted by most of the wild animals for doctoring themselves are unknown to man, but there is no doubt that every animal has the ability to skillfully doctor itself.

How to Keep Castaways Dry.

Louis O. Anderson has invented a "storm cover" for boat and rower so completely that waves and rain will roll off it as water rolls off a duck's back. The suit, which includes a head piece, is made full at its junction with the rubberized cover, says Popular Science Monthly, so that the oarsman may try to paddle with one of his oars while sitting in the stern with his tail spread out behind him. His other oar makes a backbone for the cover.

Miss Lorita Bollinger spent today in Indianapolis.

SCENE AT THE WOMEN'S PLATTSBURG

Several hundred women from all parts of the United States are living under canvas near Washington at the first national service school encampment. The idea of this camp is not only to afford women a pleasant outing but at the same time to give them some training in the way of national defense, agriculture, food conservation, national economics and the Americanization of the foreign-born.

A call by Senator Hitchcock at the White House.

Hitchcock had no definite engagement with President Wilson, but planned, if circumstances would permit, to spend some time discussing the league situation with him. Completely disapproving reported friction between Hitchcock and the president, it was stated today at Hitchcock's office that he has been informed "the White House latch string will be out to him any time."

WOMAN IN DISTRESS HELPED BY TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE

Walked From Cincinnati to Dillsboro Enroute to Bridgeport, Ill.—Had Been Ill.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. Charles Snyder, of Bridgeport, Ill., appealed to Dr. W. M. Casey, township trustee, for assistance this morning and was given car fare to Mitchell, Ind. The woman was enroute home from Cincinnati.

According to her story, her husband had gone to the harvest fields of Kansas to work and she had gone to Cincinnati to find employment while he was gone. She arrived at Cincinnati several days ago and shortly after her arrival there was taken ill. She ran out of funds and having no relatives or friends in the city to appeal to for help started to walk to her Illinois home. She walked as far as Dillsboro where citizens supplied her with money to pay her car fare to North Vernon from which place her care fare was paid to this city by the township trustee.

From all appearances the woman is in poor health and she was feeling bad this morning. She left this city over the Baltimore & Ohio for Mitchell and expects to receive help there to get her to her home as she is unable to walk.

Organization Designed TO REDUCE PRICE OF FLOUR

Millers' Export Association is Formed in Chicago Following Day's Conference.

By United Press

Chicago, July 15.—A new organization, designed to reduce the price of flour stuffs in the United States was in existence here today, the result of an all-day session yesterday of millers from all parts of the country.

The organization, the Millers Export Association, was formed, according to James F. Bell, vice-president of Washburn Crosby Company, a deal with foreign buyers who are already organized. More than 300 millers, some of them among the country's largest flour makers, will have membership in the association, Bell said.

"It costs proportionately less to make 1,000 barrels of flour than it does 100," said Bell. "A miller likes to attain maximum production, regardless of whether domestic demands call for all his stocks. The association will set the price to foreign buyers—enough to make up for loss at home—and Europe will have to meet the price.

"This done, we will be enabled to give domestic buyers a more equitable share in price reductions."

message announcing Mr. Schneck's death.

The first message received here only stated that Mr. Schneck had died and no particulars were given. Monday night, however, his physician telephoned to the family here and stated that Mr. Schneck had died suddenly following a stroke of apoplexy. He arose at the usual time Monday morning and after he had breakfasted he started for a walk in the lawn. A few minutes afterwards he was seen to fall and when a nurse reached his side he was dead.

The Seymour Woolen Mills of which the deceased was president and treasurer closed Monday afternoon and operations will be suspended until after the funeral. The family have received many letters and telegrams of condolence from persons who were acquainted with Mr. Schneck and with whom he was associated in business in other places.

Concerning a special service conducted by Mrs. R. O. Mayes, formerly of this city, the Columbus Republican contained the following article:

Services at the East Columbus Methodist church were out of the ordinary last Sunday night. The regular minister, Rev. Edmond Vest, was attending a Centenary meeting at Columbus, Ohio, and was not expected to return for church services in the evening. In his absence his daughter, Mrs. R. O. Mayes, conducted the meeting. For an hour she entertained the congregation with suitable readings. The Junior choir furnished music. The house was filled with people despite the fact that the weather was uncommonly hot. Rev. Vest returned unexpectedly but did not take part in the services. Mrs. Mayes gave three selections and won the hearty approval of her hearers.

How Gas Has Gone to Waste.

Up at Pelican Rapids on the Athabasca river, in western Canada, is a gas well that has been roaring wildly for 30 years, and in that time has sent out gas worth millions of dollars. This, too, has happened at a time when the heat and power potential in that wasted gas have been needed very much in the world. It is estimated that the well has spouted in the neighborhood of 2,000,000 cubic feet of perfectly good gas every 24 hours for the 30 years of its life.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.
